THE 1958 BROOM

Dedication

Dr. A. L. Young

To Dr. A. L. Young, friend, counselor, teacher, the staff dedicates this issue of The Broom. Dr. Young is one of the pioneer faculty members at Delta State, having served here since 1925, the year of the opening of the school. During these years, his constant dedication to his students and to his work has created for him a lasting place of honor in his profession and in the hearts of those who have learned from him. His sincere smile and friendly greeting will be a warm memory long after his retirement has taken him away from us.

A Service of Radio Corporation of America

Miss Jean Patterson
Editor
THE BROOM
Delta State College
Cleveland, Mississippi

Dear Miss Patterson:

First, I would like to thank you for selecting me as the final judge in this contest...I am deeply honored and pleased.

As you can imagine it was difficult to select just one of these lovely girls, but finally after much indecision and great concentration I chose Elizabeth Grantham. I'm not sure what the exact qualities were that influenced my decision, but I would say her large soft eyes had a lot to do with it.

May I say at this time that I would like to wish the other candidates, along with Miss Grantham, all the success in the world.

Peace

The Statesmen opened the football season in a big way on Delta field by downing Mississippi College with a 19-7 victory. Sanders and Kendricks were the big scorers in this game. All the points were made in the first half.

Delta's next match turned out a little differently against Northeast Louisiana in Monroe when they were trounced by a whopping 33-0. Nathan Zametto was high man for the Indians.

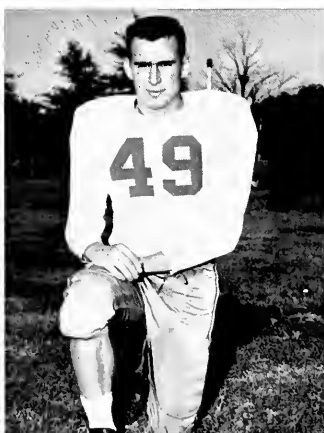

The next game was the Statesmen's homecoming with Troy State Teachers from Alabama. The night was full of excitement for everyone, with Howe and Kendricks starring in touchdowns.

Monticello was the next stop for the Statesmen where they played Arkansas A&M. This 14-13 victory for DSC was the only road game the Statesmen won. It was a mighty good game all the way, and the men did themselves proud.

Another road game put the men in Natchitoches, La., where they took a 26-0 trouncing from Northwest.

Livingston State from Alabama invaded Delta field the next week only to go home with their tails between their legs from a 28-0 beating from the Statesmen. Mason and Chapman were the point-makers.

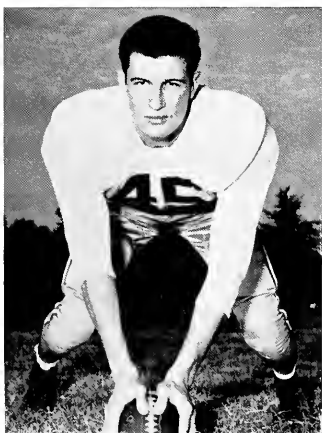

Louisiana College was the next on Delta State's list of wins. The Statesmen pulled a 20-14 win from the field when an Adams-Parnell pass combination, a TD by Mason, and one by Chapman put Delta in the lead.

The eighth game was a blooper as Delta State visited Arkansas Tech and got thumped 14-0. The men fought all the way but could never seem to break the Arkansas barrier.

The ninth and final game of the season was played in Florida against Tampa University, one of the toughest teams the Statesmen expected to play. Tampa finally edged Delta out by a score of 27-26. This was a terrific battle and the men were up for the game. With a 5-4 winning record for the year the Statesmen ended the season with a pretty good average. The seniors will be greatly missed on the gridiron next year, but here's predicting Coach "Chad" will come through again as usual.

CAMPUS LIFE

Outside . . . Reading?

Backbone of the Mill.

Hurry up!—and wait.

Smoked punch?

English Department . . . Hitt's all fouled up.

Plastic surgery, no doubt.

Wash it worth it?

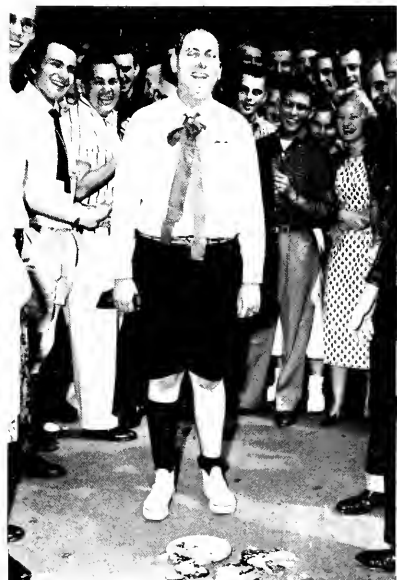

Hup-2-3-twist.

Not one person complimented my looks after all that work.

Greenies!!!

Well, we can't all win.

Open House, I hope.

Victory Smile

Who's that in the frame? Elvis?

What's so funny about a Christmas tree?

Ooh! It feels good.

But I'm a minor.

Let the good times roll.

I feels so out o' place.

Elmer and his "Off Beats."

Need we say more?

She posed;
They didn't.

Aw, shucks . . .

The line-up.

St. Vitus Dance.

Spiked?

Not me coach . . . I played the last game.

"So Rare"

It's too late now.

Once upon a time . . .

No cards under the bed, Jeannette.

Food for thought.

Tight squeeze.

The pause that refreshes.

Swing your partner.

"After the Lights Go Down Low."

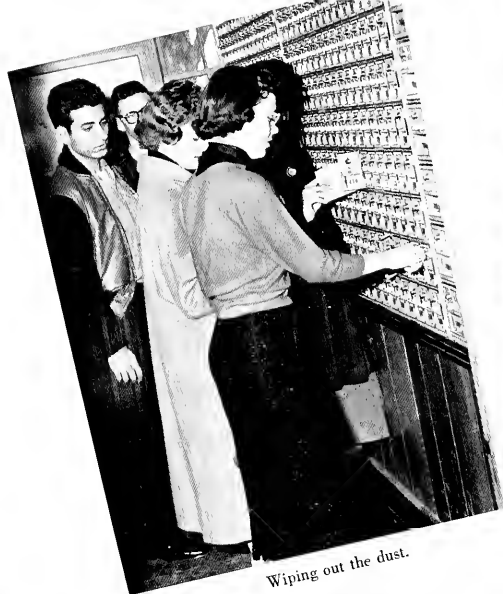

Careful with the China, Sanders.

"Let's Go to the Hop."

Wiping out the dust.

Posed?

Puttin' on the dog.

Rare moments.

The pause that refreshes.

Preacher's daily practice.

We don't do that in nursery school.

Been eating persimmons?

There goes some bacteria.

Book Island at noon.

Ssh! Genius at work.

Wonder what time it is.

Oh! how I dreaded this day.

Dum-de-dum-dum.

Ooo! La! La!

And so goes the day.

Where am I?

Hope no one sees me breaking line.

Whew! Passed the honor council.

Place the face.

Man in the hall.

Pardon me for living.

Is it stuck?

The chips are down.
